WHO WE SERVE

The Urban League Employment Services Program serves residents in the St. Louis Metropolitan area who are self-referred or referred through other Urban League programs or other social service agencies.

BENEFITS

- ⊖ Comprehensive counseling and guidance to enable clients to secure full time or part time jobs in the St. Louis Metropolitan area;
- ⊖ Resumé preparation, job readiness assistance, soft skills and office skills testing;
- ⊖ Referrals for employment consideration based on client's education/skill levels and specific employers' requested needs;
- ⊖ Group employment orientation sessions are conducted on scheduled basis at the agency's St. Louis County and St. Louis City locations; and
- ⊖ One-on-one job counseling referrals to participate in workforce development activities.

WHY EMPLOYMENT SERVICES?

- Living wage employment remains a key element of the holistic approach of helping clients achieve economic self-sufficiency.
- Finding desirable employment provides a vital "ladder out" for African Americans and others trapped in poverty.
- The unemployment rate in the St. Louis Metropolitan region is three times higher for African Americans, than in white community.
- Statistics show that the largest barrier for African American to employment is the lack of soft skills like (interviewing, resume writing, etc.) that are also necessary to find employment.
